Also in attendance:

Officers from the Secretariat at London Councils

1) Election of officers:

After confirming that the meeting was quorate, the chair suggested starting the election of officers.

The Chair announced his intention to re-stand as co-chair of the APPG alongside Florence Eshalomi MP. Both were duly elected co-chairs of the APPG.

The chair nominated Munira Wilson MP to be re-elected as a vice-chair of the group. This was agreed.

Catherine West MP put herself forward to be re-elected as Secretary of the group. This was agreed.

The officers of the APPG for London for 2024/25 are therefore:

Sir Bob Neill MP, Co-Chair
Florence Eshalomi MP, Co-Chair
Catherine West MP, Secretary
Munira Wilson MP, Vice Chair

The chair explained the need to approve an income and expenditure statement for the year. This was approved without any objections.

ACTION: The secretariat will arrange re-registration of the APPG with the parliamentary authorities and upload the minutes and income and expenditure statement to the APPG's website page.

2) Short briefing and Q&A session with Alison Griffin, Chief Executive of London Councils on the future of devolution in London.
